
Sharon McGukin

AIFD, AAF, PFCI

With her almost 40 years of experience in the floral industry, Sharon McGukin (Mac-Goo-kin) AIFD, AAF, PFCI is known nationally for her floral expertise, Southern charm and approachable manner when speaking to audiences. Her floral design presentations are both entertaining and informative.

Having started her career as a small town florist, Sharon now travels the US, Canada, and Europe presenting floral design seminars and tracking floral trends. She is a member of the prestigious team of Smithers-Oasis Design Directors. Sharon was the 2010-2011 AIFD President (American Institute of Floral Designers). She is a member and former Trustee of Professional Floral Communicators Int'l and a member of the American Academy of Floriculture. Sharon has worked in Asia as a floral consultant in the home décor industry. She often writes wedding design and floral trends articles for prominent floral industry publications and contributes to national news and magazine articles upon request. In 2009, Floral Management Magazine named Sharon as one of the floral industry's top ten 'Rock Stars'.

Flowers of the Heart: A Bride's Guide to Choosing Flowers for Your Wedding is Sharon's first book. For more info: visit www.sharonmcgukin.com. Sharon is available for interviews and to present floral design programs upon request. Contact her at sharonmcgukin@yahoo.com.
